FLORIDA VAN COUNCIL

Minutes of the June 11, 2011 meeting at Magnuson Hotel - Marina Cove Resort in St. Petersburg are as follows:

Linard called the meeting to order.

Minutes of the March 12, 2011 meeting were read and approved.

There were 9 clubs present and ONE Excused Absence (out of 12 clubs total) during roll call.

During Roll Call, Gnarly noted that Spaceman wanted to become active in vanning again. He wanted to have Grateful Sleds on the roster again. The group concluded that he could not have the club active unless he started attending the FVC meetings. Spookytooth noted that we have been lax in enforcing the FVC By-Laws, which specify that a club has to attend a certain number of meetings every year to remain active.

Mook agreed, but said this is not the time to revise the by-laws. She said we should wait until the CofC 2012 meeting is over (in February of 2012) and carefully review all the by-laws. At that time we should revise the by-laws to be consistent with the manner in which the FVC is currently being run.

TREASURER'S REPORT:

Mook gave the Treasurer's report.

FVC NEWSLETTER UPDATE:

Gnarly thanked everyone who sent in articles. He wants more e-mail addresses. He suggested that, if you just want e-mail copy of newsletter without hard copy, just let him know.

MEETING DATES FOR REMAINDER OF 2011:

Date	Location
September 3	Junior and Glenda's in Englewood
November 12	St. Cloud – Floridian R.V. Resort – Pig Roast and Election of Officers

NEW BUSINESS:

Magoo thanked everyone who showed up for the Beverly Beach event, especially those who showed up on Thursday.

VAN-IN PROPOSALS:

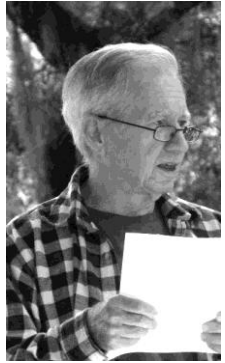

Broward March – Semi-primitive at Sidewinders in conjunction with FVC Meeting.
Foreplay May 4 – 6, 2012 – Beverly Beach

VAN-IN UPDATES:

GSVR VII October 1 - 2, 2011. Cherokee, NC

FVC October 29 – 31, 2011. Sunshine Key. Please pre-reg. Spookytooth noted that they still haven't finished re-modeling the store at the gas station up front. It should be open by the 4th of July. Otherwise, everything is OK. The current flier on the website has the accurate info.

Vanners for Vanners ✈ January 13 – 14, 2012 Ocala National Forest. Everything's OK.

COUNCIL OF COUNCILS 2012 MEETING:

Cari introduced Christine Dick, the lady we'll be working with at the Hotel.

We asked for the Tiki Bar to open at 10 AM for the CofC meeting. There are 29 rooms booked so far. R.V. suggested we get a steel drum player for the Tiki Bar, perhaps paid for by the hotel. Christine didn't seem to think that was a good idea.

We decided that the one of the Townhouse rooms, #441, would be used for the Hospitality Room, so Christine booked it for us during the meeting.

Fundraising: Hattie will make us a quilt to raffle off. We can see about asking to have a Refreshment center at the NATS, and a 50-50. We can also have an auction at the CofC 2012 meeting itself. Russ agreed to be the auctioneer, like at the 2008 meeting we hosted at Cocoa Beach. Mook will be in charge of the 50-50 at the NATS. Also, we can auction off a free room (or rooms) at the CofC 2012 meeting. We will get 1 free room for one night for every 20 rooms booked.

Goodie Bag stuffers: Bring all the stuff you have to Vanners for Vanners.

T-Shirts and Patches: The group would really like to avoid the "iron-on" transfers. Matchstick will do shirts, but by pre-reg only. Before we are forced to have "iron-on" transfers, some of the locals around the St. Pete area will see if they can find a local vendor who will silk screen at the event. We can consider having t-shirts by pre-reg only and stick with baseball jersey shirts, in keeping with the theme of the event. No tees, golf shirts, tank tops, etc. We'll discuss this at the next meeting. It was noted that 4-color screening is fine, but we have to remember that Black is a color.

Everyone agreed that the patches would be embroidered.

Band: RV, Mook, Magoo & Junior will check out local area bands. Linard suggested Thunderhead.

Party: Friday night – Pajama Party
Saturday night – Baseball-theme party

Auction: Bring auction stuff to Vanners for Vanners in January.

Name Tags: We'll have the same type wooden van "name tags" as in 2008. We'll have to coordinate bringing the wood, jigsaws, & sanders to a "work party" at Junior and Glenda's on September 3.

Lew suggested that we have pre-reg for the sailing trips. We do have to pay $80 per night just to keep the sailboat docked at the hotel marina.

Left Coast Vanners sent us an extra $300 for the 2012 Council of Councils meeting. That's in addition to the money they gave us at the end of the 2011 CofC meeting in California. Scribe John will send Left Coast a thank you letter.

Russ made a motion to adjourn and the meeting was concluded.

Respectfully submitted,

Scribe John, Secretary

Did you make it to the last meeting in St. Pete? We had the meeting then took a tour of the hotel. Man this is a nice place. This is the perfect place for a C of C. It has a great restaurant, two pools one heated for us and one for the northerners (none heated). It's right on the bay with a great view of the Skyway Bridge. The rooms open out into the courtyard for a nice party atmosphere. They have rooms with upstairs and a downstairs. Go to the website and check it out, and while you are there get the phone number and make your reservation now. All you need is a credit card to reserve your room. Find somebody who might want to share one. You wouldn't be disappointed.

I heard national's was a good time. Florida came away with a few trophies and they had some kickass bands. I'm sorry I missed it. I guess I need to start saving for next year. Wisconsin is a long drive. It will give me a good excuse to go to Illinois and see my brother.

The next meeting is at Juniors. This will be a work party with a party weekend. We need to cut out our name tag vans for C of C. So bring some tools and sandpaper. We need donations, door prize's. We need to find a band. So bring your thoughts and ideals. I will not be late this year! So truck it safe and see you soon.

Linard

Hello FVC, We are 1 meeting away from the end of another year. WTF? I don't feel like I should be getting older this fast. We are gathering together at The Sammet Lanai for another marvelous Labor Day weekend of pool shenanigans and fun with our van family. The FVC meeting will be held to elect officers, work on Council of Council projects and eat toasted cheez sammetches. I hope every one has had a good year. I am looking forward to finally getting up to GSVR in NC again, it's been many years since I've made a roadtrip to that neck of the woods. The Keys will be 4 weeks after and the Pig Roast and last meeting of the year will be 2 weeks after that. Yikes. Thank goodness The Chester Ranch will once again be the place to be for New Years Eve. I have my new bionic hip and I am ready to catch up on all the things I missed last year. I hope to see more folks at more eVANTs. Take care, love you, mean it.

Cari

Hey Guys, This year was one of the BEST VAnCations EVER! We started our 2 week journey with a camp stop at Tallulah Falls. GA. Hiking to the gorge, I discovered my fear of heights all over again. There was a "Caution..Strenuous Hike Ahead" sign, over 600 stairs down to the bottom of the gorge..If the steps would've been solid, I would've been down more than 20 of them.. But no, they were grates, able to see down to the bottom and YIKES the knee shaking started..Better luck next time. Then we headed up to the Blue Ridge Parkway. Mt. Pisgah National Forest was beautiful, and high, but I love to be up there no matter how torturous the ride up and (HOLY MOLY) down is.. Accidentally locked the keys in the van..oops. Thanks to the nice couple from Brandon,FL who gave me their one and only wire hanger...(I guess we are supposed to hide keys!?) The next day we drove on to the 39th Van Nationals. Very glad everyone survived the massive thunder/wind storm that made a pig fly (across the highway) before we arrived. It was GREAT to see everyone! I wish I could see some of you more than once or twice a year tho. Congrats to Florida for bringing home the first place trophies!

The week went fast as we had to leave on Friday to attend a Celebration of Life for Grandma. We stopped at the WHITE CASTLE in Columbus to get a snack. The drive to Illinois was LONG and VERY BUMPY (Indiana needs to spend some serious money on their roads!) A very special thank you to the gracious Indiana State Police officer that let me now that my tag light was dim at 4am! Thanks a LOT for tarnishing my perfect record for NEVER being pulled over EVER!!! I bet his name was Richard too!!! errr. Just a verbal warning was given and we were sent on our way.

We got to Illinois safely and stayed at the Magnusson Hotel where I have been informed, a vanner party is held there every February... I was in room 237 and have left them a message, don't forget to look around to find it!

We left the hotel and started the drive to Oklahoma with a quick stop at the St. Louis Arch.. It was...high.. not that bad after the very SMALL capsule trip to the top. (By small, I mean, ummm, tiny round box, kinda casket size with 5 seats in it) The view was very cool and let's just say I was glad to get back to the bottom... not to mention the free, illegal parking along the Mississippi river. I stuck my finger in the River (cause I didnt feel like taking my sneakers off) and it was still the "dirty Mississippi River" .. Sat in traffic for about an hour outside of St. Louis cause some DING DONG tried to climb the overpass in a pickup pulling a 5thwheel camper... I don't think that slide out is gonna work ever again... drive drive... we pulled in to Randys Dads campground at 8pm.. It was great to finally get there and we had a wonderful visit except for the 110 degree heat!! We departed Tulsa on Thursday morning and started towards Little Rock to visit my brother Bill at the fire station.. It was a great visit but short. We headed South instead of going towards Memphis. It was great to take a new route. We heard banjos all the way to the end of Arkansas and into some of Louisiana. We drove to a Comfort Inn Suites in Jackson, Mississippi where we retired for the night. The indoor pool was right across the hallway from our room.

We packed the MOOKcooler, rolled it across the hall and enjoyed all the pool and hottub had to offer..that's when the laptop took a full beer to the keyboard, I didn't do it btw. The next morning we then drove and drove, took forever but 13 hours later we made it home safely and delirious.. I had a great trip and can't wait to do it again next year to Wisconsin baby!

2011 Van Nationals

As seen through my eyes, Dan'o

I decided I would make this year's journey to Old Washington Ohio this year since I might be able to swing into my old stomping grounds of Dayton, but there was no time for visiting! There was a Van Natz going on and if I made it by 4:00pm I could ride along to National Trail Raceway where they were have a night at the Drag Races! I'd been to that drag strip many times as it used to be the location of Van Slam back in the day! Well I didn't make it in time...dam it!

Well I did arrive without any trouble on the road at 9:00 pm just before dark. My # coming in 429! I knew there were around 300 pre-reg's so I figured there's already a crowd building. As I entered through the gate and down Vendors Row I was met with some familiar faces! Jr. and Glenda were cruising the displays and quickly directed me to the Florida site! We had a great spot beside the host club with bathroom and (scolding hot) showers just steps away from our vans. We had great representation with Lou & Agnes, Gnarly & Mook, Spooky Tooth & Maggie, Oop & Jo, Jr & Glenda, Panda Mark, The Jersey Devil Chet, Shogun & Pricilla, Crazy Bob, Brian Diamond & Seth, and myself! I think that was everyone...hope I didn't miss anyone! Oh...Judith but I never saw her in our camp site. She was too busy helping to run the show!

The weather was awesome! There was enough sun to get a tan if you wanted to, or you could just chill out in the shade! I made my way over to the van parts swap meet were I was able to sell some of my old parts to support my vanning habit! Well it paid for some gas at least and gave me more room at home for some new junk!

Friday night had to be my favorite night because the band that night was a Pink Floyd review band that played so many of my favorite songs, and put on a great light show to boot! Saturday night they had a Blues Bros. review that was very enjoyable too! I heard there was a blue grass band one night but I missed that one. Nothing like some pickin n grinin !!

This year the Van Show was broken into 2 days! Friday was for the stock, and street classes while Saturday was held for the Modified and Radical classes. I showed as usual but didn't pull any hardware this year, but our group managed to earn six 1st place trophy's and one 2nd. I have to hand it to RV, he know how to do a Burn Out! Nothing like breaking a new motor in the right way! (RV, see Joe Van for special on tires this week!!)

Did I mention I managed to get 4 tattoo over the weekend from the on-site artist! Their like Lay's potato chips, you can't stop after one.

Another Natz is in the books and a great time was had by all! Thank You Vans on the Run!!!!

Dan'o

Welcome home to all The FVC that went to the 39th Nat's. It is a blessing that we all made it there and back safely. We had a great turnout by the beloved members of the Florida Van Council and put in our 2% of helping entertain those that attended.

I would like to inform you that it has been many years since I drove my Early Chevy 3000 miles. I am spoiled on AC and Cruise control which you all know she does not have YET I'm currently in the middle of curing that problem. She IS a TRUCK and drives like one, she beat the hell out of me. Besides the fact that I had to keep avoiding on lookers and people giving me the thumbs up by trying to side swipe me and running me off the road many times. Once I had to go clear into the shoulder lane to avoid being hit. The guy was nice enough to give me a "I'M SORRY" gesture and I thought "NO PROBLEM..DICK" but other then a misaligned alternator V-Belt problem she purred like a kitten and after 3000 miles and the "BURN-OUT" contest the new stroker is well broken in. I would like to congratulate those of you that took home awards. I myself representing the FVC received the 1st place award for best burnout and also 2nd place best 64-70 mild custom Chevy. If you are interested in seeing the Burnout John did a great job of putting the video on YouTube just go to the youtube site and enter RV'S Burnout in the search box, and turn up the sound. There is also great coverage at DropJawmag.com, Showtrucks.com and Vannin.com These guys should be recognized for their dedicated time and hard work promoting our favorite sport. I'm looking forward to seeing you all at Jr's and can't wait to go to Sunshine key. After that my old girl goes in for a major facial and may look a little different the next time you see her. I just hope it doesn't take as long as Greg Cooper did on Tom Chronister's new "DEATH STAR" he had it 2 years. I can't Waite that long. It HAS to be ready by the first week of Feb. 2012. We know that is a important date for the FVC so until next time. Luv Ya all.....RV

Gnarly's first trip to the Nats as a passenger!! Hey as long as we all get there right?! For many reasons it was the right call, as some know we left early to get to a family funeral in southern Illinois, & it was good to see the family get together even if that may have been the last time. Nats sure were a lot of fun tho! Congratulations to all! Did Bob get his own class with the Transit? Shogun's Lightspeed Penetrator has never looked better. And of Course the RV burnout – I bow, hmmm perhaps a little burn out competition in FLA- a burn-off if you will...

Thanks to all with the letters this issue, we have work to do getting ready for the CofC in Feb! Hope you get this issue in time – as I had a couple computers go down in the making of this issue...however, whatever... LIFE IS GOOD!!!

Truck 'em Safe ----- your humble newsletter producer----- Gnarly

Our vanning summer started with the June FVC meeting at the Magnusson Hotel in St. Pete, site of the 2012 C of C. We had a complete tour with Cari (Officer in Charge) and the manager. We were impressed with the beauty and amenities this place had to offer.

Next on the agenda was the 39th Nats in Old Washington, Ohio. We left on Friday before the Nats, stopped in South Carolina to visit in-laws, then left Sunday morning for Pittsburgh to visit family there. While in the 'Burgh, we picked up our shirts for the C of C - Pittsburgh Pirates of course! On Wednesday, July 13th, we arrived at the Nats - only a short two hour drive from my mother's house. We were greeted by Lew and Agnes at the front gate.

Got settled in at our site and we were ready for a good time. At 1:00 the first game was called Stock Exchange, where in your goody bag you were given 10 identical stock cards and you had to trade to come up with one of each of the 10 cards. There were 100 plaques for this, and I'm happy to say that I got one.

On Friday afternoon, the son of a friend of mine that I worked with in the Steel Mill came to the Nats. He bought a Dodge Van and wanted to go to a Van event, and the Nats was his first event. He brought three other puppy truckers with him for moral support. They ended up parking with a group from Ohio, called Next Generation Vans. This club partied hard, and brought home the Club Participation Trophy.

On Saturday, we met up with the 4 puppy truckers and we looked at all the Radical and Custom Vans. But they were very interested in the Model Contest at Noon. Their hearts dropped when they found out this was plastic and glue models, not live girl models! I let them know to stay up late by the main stage; maybe they would see what they wanted there. Sunday we packed up and all went our separate ways.

I have to say that this was one of the best Nationals that I've attended. My first was the 16th Nats in Springfield, OH put on by who else but Vans on the Run.

Last, if you are going early to the Keys, don't call the campground until after October 1st. They are dealing with all of the Miami Cubans right now and a lot of the employees that answer the phones don't have any idea what the price is for the Halloween event.

When you call, ask for Brenda or Marleen; they know what the contract amount is. The rate is $30.00 per day or $45.00 with sleep-in trailer. All prices are tax included. Same prices as last year.

See everyone over Labor Day weekend at Junior and Glenda's.

Spookytooth and Maggi Mae

2012 CofC meeting place!

2011 Van Nationals - Ohio

Hi All,

Since the last newsletter I've been to VanFest in Canada which was a great time as usual. Wish more of you could make this event as it is a lot of fun. You can always fly up to Detroit and rent a van. Wish we could get the mini truckers to show up like they do. Everyone plays together and we have a great time.

Then I came home for a week and Sue and Paul Jr. Wack came down and we went to Sea World and Universal. Was home for a week and then back to OH to get ready for the Nats.

If you weren't at the Nats you missed a great time. The weather was best it's been for years. And the grounds were great. Lots of power and water and plenty of room for all. There were 183 vans in the show, which was over two days. The Street Vans were shown on Friday with the Mild, full and radicals, etc shown on Saturday. It worked out well. Those vans who showed on Friday that were in the running for a best of were asked to come back on Saturday. I think that everyone who showed from Florida took at least one trophy home. The Saturday show was open to the public the proceeds from the public show along with the food collected at the gate went to the local food bank. The bands were great. There was a Pink Floyd band on Friday night and a Blues Brothers on Saturday night. All in all it was the best Nats I've been to in a long time.

if you didn't think pigs could fly you should have been there on Tuesday to see that they could. Vans on the Run the host of the Nationals also hosted the 16th. They said they would not do it again till pigs could fly. So they bought an inflatable pig. It was the size of a double car garage. They had it streaked down and had extra ropes on it when a storm came up. They were holding it down but the lines broke and it flue over the interstate. No one had a camera as it was pouring so no record of it is to be seen but the wings were flapping. Thank goodness no one got hurt and no cars were damaged on the road.

Thanks Vans on the Run for a job well done. We hope we don't have to wait 23 years for you to do this again.

After the Nats I went to PA to get ready for a trip to Europe with my Marilyn's Girl Scout Troup. We went to Germany, Switzerland, Austria and Liechtenstein. We had a great time.

Hope to see all of you at JR and Glenda's Labor Day weekend.
