Vanners! New Van Councils in Virginia and Texas!
Vanning is making a comeback in the south, perhaps some more options to leave our state for eVants?!

Fore Play thanks everyone for our eVant success, mother nature sure gave us a great weekend!

Keys eVant is on and hosted by us all, how 'bout
a 2012 survival theme...seems fitting for the keys.

As our years and our organization travels on, lets all think peace, love, and vanning, and if you cannot, please keep it to yourself.

I love you ALL!

Gnarly

From the FVC President

Hi all, or should I say Olla. Sombrero's off to Foreplay for another Cinco de Mayo weekend. I am glad I took Friday off; it's great to get there early. The weather was great and the water was cool. It was great to see a good crowd. I hope our northern vanners enjoyed themselves and had a safe trip back home. The tiki bar was A+, great job Coastal! Lori and Foreplay keep us fed and helped raise some money for the John fund.

Buffalo Bob was selling his spices also for the cause. I will look forward to next year (right Foreplay). Thanks for a great eVant Foreplay.

I would like to thank everybody that made it to Tom's. It looked like we had a good group that weekend. I wasn't able to spend the night after being in Georgia for the week for Pam's dad funeral. Pam would like to thank everybody for their prayers and cards. I guess this is what we have to look forward to (not in a good way) as we all get older. So call your parents as often as you can.

Coastals eVant is next on the agenda. I hope you pre-registered!!! I cannot express how important it is too. Just get the checkbook out and send it in. It's just one less thing to do at the gate and gives them a head count. Also bring a bottle for the booze basket. We are having the FVC meeting also that weekend so be prepared to come up on more ways to raise money for the John fund.

The last thing is we are doing the Key's trunk in' October 26-28 this year. They are charging us the same price as last years canceled eVant. We only reserved 20 sites and will be by pre-reg only. So get it in A.S.A.P... If you paid last year and did not use your pre-reg (for the people that did show up) consider yourself pre-registered. If you are not sure if you are, see Mook.

One more last thing. I will be stepping down as president after this year; it is time for somebody new as president, so let's start looking now! It is time to rotate.

See you soon, Linard

FVC Vice Pres and Social Director

Dear FVC. It's hard to believe summer is here and the year is half over. You know the old saying...

We all seem to be dealing with personal and health issues this first half. Thankfully, we keep in touch and remind each other of our friendship and willingness to share our burdens. I am ready for this weekend with you all for Coastal's Come Together. I had hoped to be able to attend the Nats this year but life got in the way again. I know you will all have a great summer whatever you plan. I am looking forward to the next eVant, sharing time at JR and Glenda's for Labor Day weekend. Several of us plan to trek northward to GSVR in the Smokey Mountains in October and back south to our annual Keys vacation.

Make an effort to be happy and safe.

Best wishes.

Cari

There are only 13 more days of school; when you read this there will be even less. May is always a busy month for me. The month begins with Beverly Beach and my anniversary, which both came on the same weekend this year. We had a great time. Thank you to everyone who celebrated with Sixpack and me. You helped to make our 40th anniversary special. It was a relaxing beautiful weekend spent with special friends. My grandkids had fun playing in the kid's games. Sixpack hung out at the Tiki hut all weekend. I just sat back and didn't do much of anything but rest and relax.

After that we had Mother's Day. My son and his family spent the day with me. The kids went to the park and it was just another day of fun. There are several family birthdays in May. Finally the month ends with Memorial Day Weekend and my Birthday. We are having a get-together Monday. (Camp Skoko will be open all week-end.) It is always a fun time.

Hope to see you soon!

Agnes

Well this is my 1st contribution to the newsletter in a while. The most dangerous eVAnt of the year (at least for me)at Beverly Beach is over and believe it or not I did have a good time. Thank you to Foreplay. I never realized that canned Beeferoni with cheese melted on it could taste like a gourmet (soft) meal to a hungry man, but I'm eating everything again now. I think "tequila Bob" may retire from the entertainment business.

It's been a good year with some good eVANTs and a great CofC. The way the members of the FVC have pulled together to start working our way out of the financial bind has been very encouraging, I know we will get things taken care of. Coastal Vans and RedEye Truckers have worked hard to put on another good eVAnt. With smaller numbers sometimes we need to do things a little differently due to campground restrictions. I hope everybody enjoys our laid back eVAnt with BBQ. I do have some of the "Vanner;s Seasoning" left so be sure to stock up and help out the FVC. Keep on Vannin'

Buffalo Bob

Just wanted send best wishes to all. We had a great time at Beverly Beach, it was great to finally have our own little house for a change. living out of the old Chevy just don't cut it and Mad Max was in Heaven. First time he has seen the ocean and ran on the beach. I could tell he was amazed and in wonder. He has since made a commitment to a new girlfriend and is going to be shacking up with her this week end.

So far this year's vanning activities have all been great even though we had a little problem with the CofC financially it was a great time thanks to all the efforts of the FVC officers and those members that pitched in and helped. I'm sure if we all kick in a little here and there we will eventually fill the hole. I will donate to any fund raiser that helps the council get back in the black. We're registered for the Pig roast and I just sent in my pre-reg for the VCVC warm up party and the 40th Nat's. The deadline is approaching so if you know you are going getter in save yourself a few bucks and let them know you are coming. I will arrive at the 40th on Monday or Tues. morning at the latest. (banking on the old Chevy is good to me this year). I would like to know if any of you will be there by then? I'm sure Jude will be. I would like to set up camp where the FVC will be located so I do not have to tear down and move. see yuns all at the roast.....PEACE and LOVE to ALL.....RV

Another great vanning at the beach has come & gone. Now back to reality.

My compliments to Foreplay vanners for a job well done. There was a great turn out and a good amount of early arrivals on Thursday. Thank you to the members of the SEVC that supported this event. I was thrilled to have Junior ask me to help judge the van show on Saturday. I really enjoyed that and saw additional details that I had not noticed on the same vans I helped judge at C of C. I feel I'm obtaining a great level of knowledge on what goes into these awesome custom vans. The FVC has some very sweet vans. The salsa contest was pretty neat. I'm not much of a cook or anything, but I entered anyway. I think my sweet and chunky black bean salsa went over pretty well. I had very little left overs. I got a little bottle of Jose Cuervo margarita for my participation prize. Unfortunately mine must have had a leak and was empty early in the evening. lol I'm looking forward to seeing every one at the next event in June.

Keep on vanning,

Luke, Leslie & family

Hi all.

I had a great time at Fore Plays truckin. Although I hate the salt water and sand I love looking at it and the weather was perfect for that. What an amazing Moon glow we were able to experience since we were away from all the city light. The music was good and I really liked the shirts (thanks Hattie). The food was good and the company was great. Thanks go to Cari for organizing the Auction. Every little bit helps to pay down our debit. Looking forward to next year's event.

I'll miss you all at Coastal's event but will be thinking about you. I'll be in Canada. I left on May 17th and am now in OH. Will leave for UT on Monday. I went to a Rays game on the 16th and ran into Richie, 4 time in one night. We don't usually see each other 4 time in a year. We had a great time even if it did rain on us as we entered and left the stadium. By the way if any of you have the chance to go to the Mummies of the World exhibit at the MOSI in Tampa, go. It's rather amazing.

See some of you at Nats and the rest at JR and Glenda's. Have a great summer

Judith
